RCIA—Is Now The Time?

Have you ever given consideration to becoming Catholic? Are you married to a Catholic and wonder what it’s all about? Do your children ask you questions about the faith that you can’t answer? Do you know someone who has spoken to you about becoming Catholic but just didn’t know where to start? The journey to becoming Catholic is known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and begins with a period of evening sessions that are all designed to answer questions of those seeking to learn about the faith. Each session builds upon the other and the first one is Monday, September 17 at 7:00 pm in the parish center. Please contact Deacon Tim Crooker to arrange a consultation before that date at tcrooker@stjameswhiteoak.com or 513-741-5325.

Interested in joining a supportive group of mothers exploring and building their faith? If you answered YES then please contact Christina Sillies at 513-741-8747 or silly7@fuse.net for more information. Formation of new groups for Fall 2018 is underway.

Dewey's Pizza in Green Township at 5649 Harrison Ave. is offering a special event to help raise funds for our parish. These events help to cover the "extra" costs to the parish that are not included in the budget. Mention this offer when visiting or when ordering takeout that evening. Bring the flyer with you THAT IS IN TODAY'S BULLETIN or you can find it on our web page, take a picture with your phone or just mention the offer. 20% of the total purchases made from 4-10 PM will be donated back to St. James. This is an easy and delicious way to help our parish!!
