RCIA—Is Now The Time?

Have you ever given consideration to becoming Catholic? Are you married to a Catholic and wonder what it's all about? Do your children ask you questions about the faith that you can't answer? Do you know someone who has spoken to you about becoming Catholic but just didn't know where to start? The journey to becoming Catholic is known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and begins with a period of evening sessions that are all designed to answer questions of those seeking to learn about the faith. Each session builds upon the other and the first one is Monday, September 17 at 7:00 pm in the Parish Center. Please contact Deacon Tim Crooker to arrange a consultation before that date at tcrooker@stjameswhiteoak.com or 513-741-5325.
