Tour of the Church

Sanctuary

114. The 12 arches on the altar represent the 12 Apostles. A relic of Saint James the Greater can be seen in the base of the altar. The altar was consecrated by Archbishop Daniel E. Pilarczyk on February 1, 1997.
115. The ambo was designed to reflect the altar. It has a "throne" for the Book of Gospels after the proclamation is finished. There is a step that slides out when needed by the lector and the entire top cantilevers down for accessibility.
116. The sanctuary step is Crema Marfil marble. The flooring is Absolute Black granite. Both have a small brass trim running along the edge.
117. The sanctuary is handicapped accessible by ramps at the rear.
118. The Weberding Carving Shop in Batesville, Indiana is responsible for the altar and chairs in the sanctuary. This firm also created the statue of the Resurrected Jesus which is in the west upper vestibule.

RCIA

Is Now The Time?

Have you ever given consideration to becoming Catholic? Are you married to a Catholic and wonder what it’s all about? Do your children ask you questions about the faith that you can’t answer? Do you know someone who has spoken to you about becoming Catholic but just didn’t know where to start? The journey to becoming Catholic is known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and begins with a period of evening sessions that are all designed to answer questions of those seeking to learn about the faith. Each session builds upon the other and the first one is Monday, September 17 at 7:00 in the parish center. Please contact Deacon Tim Crooker to arrange a consultation before that date at tcrooker@stjameswhiteoak.com or 513-741-5325.

Interested in joining a supportive group of mothers exploring and building their faith?

If you answered YES, then please contact Christina Sillies at 513-741-8747 or silly7@fuse.net for more information. Formation of new groups for Fall 2018 is underway.
