Fasting and Abstinence

Good Friday is an obligatory day of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence from meat and meat products. The norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal. Two smaller meals may also be taken, but not to equal a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding from age 14 onwards.

Food on Holy Thursday

At the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday (7:00 pm, April 1) we will again be collecting non-perishable food items for the poor in addition to our monetary collection. Everyone will be invited to come forward to present both the money and food which will go to a local pantry.

Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education; it also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees.

When you contribute, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

For more information, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

Easter Sunday

On Easter Sunday we will have our regular schedule of Masses at 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. As with Christmas, we cannot accommodate the crowds at these Masses that we have had in the past. We are still very observant of the requirements of masking and social distance. This gives us an approximate capacity of 250 people. The 10:00 a.m. Mass will be livestreamed, as it is on all Sundays. We encourage everyone to consider this alternative to in-person attendance.

In the event we have an overflow crowd for the church for the 10:00 a.m. Mass, we will provide live-streaming in the church hall. This will include the distribution of Holy Communion.

We also encourage everyone to consider joining us for the 9:00 p.m. Easter Vigil Mass on Holy Saturday. This is the most important liturgy of the year. Maybe this is the year to participate in-person as we begin our celebration of Easter.

Preparing for Divine Mercy Sunday—April 11

The Extraordinary Graces of Divine Mercy Sunday

Jesus Christ has promised to the world, through St. Faustina, "complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." These extraordinary graces are available to the faithful through the reception of Holy Communion in a state of grace on Divine Mercy Sunday (Diary, 699). Jesus also tells St. Faustina that we are to have great trust in His Mercy, be merciful to others, and to venerate the Image (Diary, 1520, 1578). "Every soul believing and trusting in My mercy will obtain it" (Diary, 420). Our preparation for the Feast of Divine Mercy starts with strengthening our trust in The Divine Mercy and "showing mercy to your neighbors always and everywhere" (Diary, 742). (See pamphlets at the church doors.)

FORMED

We celebrate the feast of the Annunciation this Thursday, March 25th, meaning that Christmas is only nine months away. FORMED has numerous materials on Mary, but consider "Mary: Handmaid of the Lord" by St. Teresa of Calcutta. In this inspiring talk, she shares her insights on the Blessed Virgin Mary as a model of womanhood and perfect discipleship. She shows us that we, too, can do the will of God by saying "yes" to the Lord in the big and little things in our lives. Nothing is too insignificant!

To subscribe to FORMED, go to: formed.org, create an account and the entire content is free to enjoy! Under "I belong to a Parish or Organization" type or search for St. James the Greater, or you can enter our parish code: K33Y8T. Do you have a favorite FORMED content you'd like to share? Email your recommendation to Deacon Tim Crooker at tcrooker@stjameswhiteoak.com.

The Girl Scout Troops of St. James are pleased to recognize the following young ladies receiving the Marian Award at Mass this weekend. This 8th grade troop has worked together over the last 18 months composing their own prayer which they recited at the closing of monthly meetings. During their meetings, they researched apparitions and made their own rosaries. They also visited a Greek Orthodox Church, taking note of the differences between churches. The girls volunteered at the FreeStore Foodbank, hosted a free babysitting day, and organized donations within the troop to support local volunteer efforts. For a service project, the scouts decided the goal was to "Spread Positivity." The girls made posters with encouraging quotes and sayings to hang in the hallways at school and they also made notecards for every student! The troop and their parents and leaders are thankful to St. James for allowing them to spread their positivity within our church and school community. We are thankful for these scouts and their commitment to doing good and look forward to seeing what the future holds for these ten young ladies!
