PARISH OFFICE SUMMER HOURS

The Parish Office will close at 12 Noon every Friday now through July 31st.

The office will be open Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, from 9 am to 4 pm.

Church Open

On Saturdays, the church will open in time for Confessions at 12:30 p.m.

For morning Mass on weekdays, church will be open by 8:00 a.m. On Sunday, it will be open by 7:30 a.m.

We are trying to have church open for Adoration at the tabernacle and private prayer from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Monday through Friday. Several times a week the church is being fully sanitized in the afternoons.

That requires the church be closed during the procedure and remain closed for the rest of the afternoon.

Confessions:

Normal hours: Father continues to hear Confessions at the regular time of 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. on Saturdays. He will hear Confessions in the Hubble Rd. sacristy, next to the Confessional. There will be 6 feet distancing for both face-to-face and anonymous Confessions. Directions for waiting, etc., will be posted at the church doors. We will not be using the Confession Room anytime soon. It is too small. This move will mean people can wait inside church and not gather in the entrances as they wait. They can also pray in church after going to Confession, and many people do use the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to pray after Confession.

WELCOME! Are You Interested in the Catholic Faith?

St. James will soon begin a new journey in faith to share the richness of the Catholic Church and our parish family. We invite you to learn what the Church teaches and be introduced to some of our parish members. These sessions also are opportunities for you, and others that you may wish to invite, to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church. These gatherings are for anyone who is unbaptized, as well as those who are baptized Christians from other faith traditions.

Please give Deacon Tim a call if you have questions or would like further information at 513-741-5325 or email at tcrooker@stjameswhiteoak.com.

WELCOME
A JOURNEY IN FAITH

FORMED

This Saturday is the feast of St. James the Greater, our parish’s patron saint. St. James was one of Jesus’ first disciples and one of only three to witness Jesus’ Transfiguration. Following Jesus’ Ascension, St. James spread the Gospel across the Roman kingdom traveling as far as Spain. He returned to Jerusalem where he was martyred by King Herod. He was not buried in Jerusalem, but his remains were taken to Spain where he is buried. The “Way of St. James,” or “Camino de Santiago,” is the ancient route leading from the Pyrenees to Cathedral de Santiago de Compostela where St. James is buried. Watch “The Way of Saint James” to experience the journey on this route through the eyes of pilgrims.

To subscribe to FORMED, go to: formed.org, create an account and the entire content is free to enjoy! Under “I belong to a Parish or Organization” type or search for St. James the Greater, or you can enter our parish code: K33Y8T. Do you have a favorite FORMED content you’d like to share? July 19— Week 17

Jesus first heard the sound of his mother’s heartbeat today. Its steady drumming is a comfort to Him. He also saw his first flickers of brightness when his mother stood in the sunshine. The Light of the world has seen his first rays of sunlight. Jesus of the womb, Hear our prayers!

Due to COVID-19 the Missionary with the Precious Blood could not visit our church as scheduled in May this year. They are asking that you please consider donating by sending a contribution by August 1st to St. James Parish Office or drop an envelope in our basket with “Precious Blood Missionary” noted on the outside. Checks should be made payable to St. James Church with a notation for Precious Blood Missionary.

Below you can read about their mission and the help they provide.

St. Gaspar del Bufalo, who founded the Missionaries of the Precious Blood in 1815, knew from an early age that he wanted to be a priest. That longing manifested itself in many ways, one of which was Gaspar's treks from home when he was still a boy to bring food and comfort to the poor farm families who came to a crowded square in Rome to sell what they had grown. Gaspar visited prisoners; he ministered to the sick; he was drawn to those who needed help to see that Jesus had shed his Precious Blood to save all people, including those who feel isolated or cast off.

Missionaries of the Precious Blood

That identity as a Missionary, that longing to bring God's peace and healing to people who need it the most, still drives those who follow in St. Gaspar's footsteps. We have seen in our own lives what the power of the Precious Blood can do, and we want to share that Good News, that healing and reconciliation, with others.

This takes place at our ministry sites in the United States, at parishes, schools and hospitals. It takes place at our Sorrowful Mother Shrine in Bellevue, Ohio, a place of reconciliation and healing, and at the Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation on the south side of Chicago, where Missionaries offer a safe place to young people and their families in a neighborhood wracked with violence.

For more than 70 years, Missionaries have also been in ministry in Latin America, including Chile, Peru, Guatemala and Colombia. We have learned so much from the people we serve. "Prayer and action," St. Gaspar said in describing our mission. It is a good method for all of us.

One example is the Missionaries' nutrition project in the La Labor region of Guatemala.

A Missionary visits with parishioners after Mass in rural Chile.

We're working with lay volunteers who cook lunch several times a week in a simple kitchen behind Our Lady of Carmel Chapel. They serve a hot, nutritious lunch to the dozens of young children who come from miles around. Malnutrition is a real problem in Guatemala; volunteers track the children's weight to be sure the project is helping—and it is!

Lunch is served at the nutrition project in Guatemala.

Seminarians gather at a mass in Colombia.

Missionaries of the Precious Blood

It is our mission to share the Word of God on Sunday then live the Word for the rest of the week. We are all part of a missionary church, all called to go forth at the end of every Mass to spread the Good News.

Like us, you are part of the Church, so you know that it can be demanding. It takes us to places we never thought we would go. It leads us to live as missionaries. "Missionaries are not statues," St. Gaspar said. We want our Missionaries to be in motion, finding ways to serve the people with the eternal truth that they need NOW.

Do you also feel that missionary spirit, part of the mission that Christ gave to his church? Does the Holy Spirit inspire you to reach out to others, sometimes in ways that you could not have managed on your own? Are you drawn to those whom others have rejected or cast aside?

We hope that you will consider being a part of our mission with your prayers and your support. Your gift to the Missionaries of the Precious Blood will be shared with our brothers and sisters in Latin America.

We pray daily for those who support us, and ask that you remember us in your prayers.

I will leave you with one last quote from St. Gaspar. He said we are to "serve God with holy joy." As you know, being a part of the Church can bring many things to our lives: a feeling of fellowship, of reverence and awe, of spiritual support. But it can also lead to deep joy, knowing that we are part of the great net that Jesus uses to draw others near to him. We are each a strand of that net, sometimes strong, and sometimes relying on the strength of others.

We thank you for considering strengthening our net with your support, and we pray that you experience the full joy that the life of a missionary can bring.

In the Blood of the Lamb,

V. Rev. Jeffrey S. Kirch, C.P.P.S.
